

THE AGENCY WELCOMES STACY GOTTULA TO THE TEAM

The Agency is proud to announce that Stacy Gottula will be joining the team at their Beverly Hills headquarters. One of the top real estate agents in Los Angeles, she has been recognized in REAL Trends' "America's Best," Hollywood Reporter's "Top 25 Real Estate Agents," and Variety's "Showbiz Real Estate Elite."

Stacy's mastery of the demanding West Los Angeles market and thorough knowledge of high-end properties has led to record-breaking sales of the city's premier real estate. In 2015 she listed "Palazzo di Amore" in Beverly Hills, which was the United States' most expensive home ever at a staggering $195 million dollars, preceded by the sale of "Le Palais," a record for the Beverly Hills flats in 2013 with a list price of $58 million; "Le Belvedere," the highest-priced sale in the nation in 2010 with a list price of $72 million; as well as the prestigious Hefner Estate in 2009, also known as the "sister property" to The Playboy Mansion. Her record-breaking sales over the years have garnered international attention in Bloomberg, CNN Money, Wall Street Journal, Robb Report and Forbes, to name a few.

"Stacy is a gifted agent with a stellar reputation," says Billy Rose, President and Co-Founder of The Agency. "She has a track record for exceeding client expectations and razor sharp knowledge of the luxury real estate market. We are fortunate to have her on our team."

A California native, Stacy studied at the University of California, San Francisco before moving to Los Angeles and finding her calling in the dynamic world of real estate. She became a licensed agent in 2004, and in 2006, partnered with Joyce Rey, one of the top-ranked women in the industry. Together for over ten years, they built an award-winning team at Coldwell Banker. With her down-to-earth approach and expert negotiating skills, Stacy achieved Coldwell Banker Previews International designation in record time and was recognized as the top 1%. She brings with her over 12 years of luxury real estate experience and a creative, forward-thinking approach to every transaction that is perfectly aligned with The Agency's mission.

"I am always trying to raise the bar and find new ways to enhance the real estate experience for my clients," Stacy adds. "I'm honored to work with a talented group of agents whom I've admired and respected over the years and to have a world-class marketing team behind me. The Agency is at the forefront of change and innovation in real estate, and I'm excited to continue offering my clients a world-class experience."
